The Handong Pledge

For Exchange Admission

I, hereby, pledge to respect the Handong Global University (HGU) curricula and its student life programs and principles with the understanding that the education is based on Christ-centered, Biblical principles. I will study and live responsibly during my enrollment at HGU.

The following terms shall apply. I will:

- Follow the educational curricula including general studies, major study courses, and the practical training/preparatory/character-building courses based on Handong's education system.
- Understand Handong Global University was established based on Christian values and beliefs and not be involved in propagating other religious doctrines during enrollment and do not display private religious practice in public including places such as dormitory or class.
- Put integrity and self-control first in the non-proctored exam system, Handong honorary system and policies that prohibit using tobacco, alcohol and any drugs.
- Adhere to university rules, policies, and regulations.
- Be responsible for my actions in and outside the university and be responsible for the consequences of actions and behavior which violate university rules and regulations as prescribe herein. I understand that violating these policies will lead to penalties, which may lead to expulsion from HGU.

This pledge shall be in force with my enrollment as an HGU student and shall be guaranteed by my parents, guarantor, or guardian.
